SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 4 years.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.

Pursuant to Public Law 108-405, Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004, the defendant shall submit to DNA collection while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not use or possess a firearm, ammunition, dangerous weapons or destructive device. Supervised release shall be revoked for possession of a firearm.

The defendant shall make special assessment, fine and restitution payments as ordered by the Court and is required to notify the Court, through the Probation Office, of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to meet these monetary obligations.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court (set forth on the following page). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall pay all financial obligations immediately. Any financial obligations not paid immediately or through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Responsibility Program shall be paid beginning 60 days following his release from confinement, in monthly installments of not less than $25.

The defendant shall submit to alcohol and drug testing as directed by the Probation Officer and shall comply with specific copays imposed pursuant to district policy for failing to comply with drug testing.

As a component of the defendant's treatment and testing program, the defendant shall pay a one-time fee of $250.00 to partially defray the costs of treatment and/or drug testing. Monetary payments made by the defendant shall be applied to this fee only after all other court-ordered monetary obligations have been fulfilled. Payment of the fee shall be made by money order or cashier's check to the Clerk of District Court, 2120 Capitol Avenue, 2nd Floor, Cheyenne, Wyoming 82001, utilizing the payment coupon provided by the probation office. This condition is waived in the event the defendant is supervised by a district other than Wyoming.

The defendant shall refrain from the use or possession of alcohol and is prohibited from entering establishments whose chief source of income is derived from the sale of alcohol.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this conditions.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the Court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court;
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.
